

WORK PLAN
STUDENT SCIENTIFIC CLUB
"Planet of Tourism"
for the 2024-2025 academic year

No	Theme	Date
1.	Discuss and determine the club's key tasks and activities and develop a work plan for the 2024/2025 academic year. Election of the head of the student scientific club. Field organizational meeting of the scientific club and excursion to the Museum of Folk Architecture in Pyrohiv.	September 2024
2.	Study motivations for involving students in scientific activities and their participation in scientific events. Presenting information about scientific events at the regional, all-Ukrainian, and international levels, such as student conferences, competitions, and grants, which will take place during the current academic year. Familiarization of the club members with the content of research work, work on the search and selection of scientific sources, and the requirements for the design of scientific research. Organization of an excursion for students, "Secrets of ancient Kyiv."	October 2024
3.	Analyse students' work in planned student conferences, scientific and practical seminars, and round tables. Training on preparing for a speech at a scientific student conference, writing Scientific Works, and familiarizing students of the scientific club with methodological recommendations for the organization, conduct, design, and publication of scientific research.	December 2024

4.	Analysis of scientific achievements of students studying tourism studies, discussion of methods of processing the obtained empirical data within the framework of students' scientific works. Discuss problems and prospects for conducting scientific and practical research in tourism.	February 2025
5.	Carrying out activities to popularize tourism as a way of sports, cognitive, and recreational activities for students. Organization and holding of meetings and master classes with experts in the tourism industry, higher education institutions' teachers, public authorities' representatives, and businesses.	April 2025
6.	The final meeting of the student scientific club will be held, during which students will present reports on the results of their research work for the academic year. Discussion of the general achievements and results of the activities of the scientific club during the 2024/2025 academic year.	May 2025